

St Joseph's School, Chelsea

Term 3, Week 8 Thursday 5th September 2019

Father's Day Celebrations

We had a great Father's and special person's morning breakfast. The weather was kind to us although very cool. It was wonderful to see dad's and grand dads with the students outside and also showing them their class rooms. We hope everyone enjoyed themselves and has a great day last Sunday.

Dear Families,

Footy Day

Footy day will be celebrated on Friday 13th September. All children are encouraged to wear their team colours on the day. A special Footy day assembly will be held at 2.30pm which everyone is welcome to attend. A special BBQ sausage lunch will be sold from the canteen on that day. Order forms have been sent home. Please return urgently.

The canteen will run as normal on Thursday 12th September and will be open for snacks only on Friday 13th September (no lunch orders as a sausage sizzle will be on).

Multicultural Day - Wednesday 18th September

All details of the day are available on careMonkey, including ingredients for you to review if your child is having a rainbow gelati. Please give permission on careMonkey.

Hats

The school sunsmart policy stipulates that all students must wear hats from the 1st September until the 1st April when outside.

All students need to be wearing their hats when outside.

If you require a new one, they are available from the office for $8 (Bucket Hat) or $6 (Legionaires hat).

Lost property

If you are missing items... they may have found their way into the lost property basket outside the office. Please come and check.

Canteen news

There is no yoghurt available for the rest of the term.

Premier's Reading Challenge

Just a reminder that the Premier's Reading Challenge finishestomorrow, Friday 6th September. No books can be entered from that day. If you are having trouble finding or entering your books, please talk to the Office or Mandy in the library ASAP.

Fee Statements

Fee statements were emailed two weeks ago. The third instalment was due last week.

If you did not receive your statement please check in your junk mail.

Pauline's dear friend Toohey

Quite a number of families and students have asked about what's going to happen to Toohey? The news is that Toohey is on his way to Queensland with Pauline's son. He is heading to his retirement in a new cage and new warmer weather. We are sure he will be well looked after.

Edithvale Golf Course free program on offer.

There is a great opportunity for students to have a free come and try experience with golf that is on offer at Edithvale Golf Course, delivered by our 2018 Australian MyGolf Deliver of the Year Paul Boxall.

Kids will have the opportunity to learn the basics of the game through a fun games based approach which can be modified for all levels of ability.

Kids learn what they live

by Michael Grose

Ever opened up your mouth and heard your own parents speak?

I'd frequently speak to my kids when they'd been less than perfect and I could hear my father speaking. I'd use the same words, same tone of voice and same body language as my father. The similarity was a little spooky.

This happens because the ghosts from the past are very strong impacting not just our communication but our parenting as well. Kids copy their parents. Temperament, gender, genetic and birth order factors all play a part in shaping kids. They signify the differences between children's behaviour, attitudes and interests.

It's in children's similarities that the impact of parenting is seen.

Are all your kids tolerant, generous, kind and forgiving, perhaps some less than others? If so, there's a good chance that you possess those qualities or, at least, one parent displays those qualities.

Children learn what they live

When kids live with gratitude, encouragement and affection on a daily basis they are more likely to adopt those behaviours themselves. In fact, those types of behaviours become part of their values system.

They may shy away from these behaviours in adolescence yet most kids will return to their core values in their twenties and beyond. Most kids find their identity only after they've rejected it.

Similarly, when kids live with criticism, mean-spiritedness and intolerance they are more likely to display those attitudes. Teachers and schools can impact children's attitudes and behaviours but it can be hard to override the values that kids develop at home. Kids are more likely to reflect their parents' attitudes and behaviours than those of their teachers.

Do you like what you see?

Take a good look at your kids' attitudes, behaviours and values, particularly how they treat others. If you like what you see then give yourself a pat on the back because you've done a good job through both overt teaching and modelling of raising a person in your likeness.

If you're not happy with what you see – I'm not referring to the out-of-character, poor behaviour that kids at times display due to fatigue, a stage or some other unknown reason (kids will be kids) – but if you cringe when you see some of the attitudes and behaviours that your kids routinely show then some self-reflection may be the order of the day.

That's nothing necessarily to be ashamed of. Kids get front row seats to the very best and very worst of their parents' behaviours. We just need to make sure that our best is amplified and our worst is minimised or, at least, not witnessed by our kids.

It helps to sit down with your partner or a trusted friend and review the type of person that's on display for your kids every now and then. It will be a worthwhile exercise both personally and as a parent. As your kids are a reflection of you, start the reflection process by looking at the behaviours, attitudes and states of mind they have in common. If you're happy with what you see then you're okay. If not, then maybe it's time for some changes.

Dad's Footy Day

Just a reminder that the Dad's Footy day is this Saturday at 3pm at the Chelsea footy club. All are welcome! It's not only a day for the dads but for the mums and kids to mingle also.

There will be a bbq and soft drink available and the bar will be open upstairs.

Last year everyone brought a picnic and food and we all shared on the day! The kids will get to have a run around on the ground once the game is done too!

Your uniform will be available at the like any cuttings so we can plant in our garden. The garden is coming along well and the children love to help out at lunchtime by watering, pulling out weeds, clipping our herbs ready for sale and much more. Let's get behind our school garden and our kids.

Our next market will be on Friday 6th September so please help out by donating items or coming along to buy goods. Please bring coins and your very own shopping bag!
